THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 26.

EISENBACH'S HORRIBLE DEATH .- A frightful accident accurred in the Wilson Woollen Mills at Trenton, New Jersey, Wednesday. William E seneach was literally cut to pieces in the presence of several young girls and young men. He was atsistant foreman of the carding room, and it was his duty to start the machinery each morning. While in the act of throwing over a four inch beit his right hand was caught in the wheel. He made an effort to free it with his left hand, and in an instant be became entangled and was whirled through the air.

His body was forced through a small space between the main shaft and the ceiling and dismembered. It was carried with the belt and forced through this space several times and each time a limb was torn from its socket. Part of the head were also torn off and before the machinery could be stopped the body passed between the belt and the fly wheel and was cut to pieces.

Young Eisenbach was in his twenty-first year and was arranging to celebrate his birthdey next week, having invited a number of his fellow workmen. He has worked In the Wilson Mill since his boyhood.

MEDICINAL.

A young girl here had been suffering for 12 years with blood diseases until she had lost the use of her limbs and was subject to many troubles incident to the disease. declared her case incurable and predicted that 'her life would come to a speedy end. After taking S. S. S. she recuperated so fast that it was plain that she had obtained a new lease or life, and she has continued to grow better until her permanent cure is assured. Many other patients in our hospital have obtained signal benefit from S. S. S., and it has become quite a favorite in our house.
